IMPORTANT:

Each student can only submit one photo and one poster to the competition.

The prizes will be paid in the form of extraordinary scholarships, so the prerequisite for participation in the competition is that the authors are still TUL students in the academic year 2018/2019.

All photos and posters submitted to the competition will be exhibited on 6 November 2018 in the hall in front of the Assembly Hall in Building G within International Day. During the International Day programme, students and visitors will also vote for the most popular poster and photograph and the winner will be announced later that day - the reward will be in the form of promotional items of the Erasmus+ programme. The works will be exhibited there for at least two more weeks. We would also like to use the photographs and posters on other occasions to promote the Erasmus + programme, such as during information meetings at faculties, open door days, etc.

We are also planning to use some selected photographs to make a university Erasmus + calendar for the following academic year.

Sending the photo and the poster to the competition is considered to be the consent to publication/public display. If there are people other than the author in the photographs, the author is responsible for informing them about exhibiting the photographs at the university premises and about the promotional use of the photographs.

Posters and photos received after the given deadline will not be included in the competition.
